WEEK 1	Starting off right Firstly, you can do this! 13.1 miles is a long way, but have faith in yourself and the journey you are about to go on – and this plan! Regular training will develop the stamina and strength you need to run a successful half marathon. LET'S GO!	Session 1 10 min walk; 4 min easy run, 1 min walk x 4; 10 min walk (40 min total)	Listen Let's Do This – Pioneers Hugh Brasher, CEO of London Marathon Events, shares the story behind building the most popular marathon on the planet, what he's learned about leadership and why mass participation events are such a force for good in society.	Session 2 5 min easy run, 5 min walk x 3 (30 min total)	Pride in London Find out more about the team of volunteers working hard to make Pride London (4 July) the UK's biggest and most diverse Pride. Everything they do is designed to give LGBTQIA+ people a platform to be visible and speak loudly to the rest of the city about what matters to them.	Session 3 10 min easy run, 2 min walk x 4 (48 min total)	The good news? There's no training today! Sit back, relax (if you can!), reflect on your success and look forward to the week ahead. These Sundays are a chance to rest, and plan your fundraising! First up, create your fundraising page with Enthuse, our official fundraising partner.
WEEK 2	Fuelling your body Here are our top three foods to help aid your recovery and rebuild and repair those muscles after every run: 1. Watercress Not just garnish – watercress is an established big-hitter for recovery and damage limitation. The peppery leaves contain hefty amounts of iron, vitamin C and calcium and are a great way to liven up a salad. Eat: Whenever you can! 2. Alcohol-free beer Contains powerful antioxidant phenols: a German study showed runners who were given non-alcoholic beer for three weeks before the Munich Marathon suffered less inflammation afterwards than a placebo group – and probably fewer headaches too! Drink: Erdinger Alkoholfrei 3. Apples Among many good things, apples contain quercetin, an anti-inflammatory antioxidant. Eat: Like they say, an apple a day!	Session 1 10 min walk; 2 min easy run, 1 min walk x 10; 5 min easy run; 5 min run (50 min total)	Listen The Start Line Hosted by Dee, Jules and Petrina: three sisters talking about running, eating, music, life... and everything in between.	Session 2 10 min easy walk; 1 min steady run, 2 min walk x 6; 5 min easy walk (33 min total)	Hydrate and fuel sustainably Use a refillable water bottle, soft flask or vest to hydrate sustainably on your training runs. Download the Refill app to find public water refill points. Follow Gigi Grassia on Instagram for quick, protein-packed vegan recipes.	Session 3 5 min walk; 20 min easy run; 3 min walk; 20 min easy run; 5 min walk (53 min total)	Involve colleagues Add your fundraising link to your email signature, or put it on the work noticeboard, to spread the word with your colleagues.
WEEK 3	Training in summer While training during the summer months means longer days and (hopefully) less wind, rain and mud to contend with, it can be tricky if the temperatures start hotting up! Visit our website to read our top tips for running in the heat. Use the London Greenground map to explore the city's incredible green spaces, waterways and nature paths. Check out Air Aware Labs to map routes with better air quality.	Session 1 10 min walk; 4 min easy run, 1 min walk x 4; 10 min walk (40 min total)	Listen RunPod Special guests discuss their passion for running. WEEK 4	Three tips for a good night's sleep 1. Turn your screens off an hour before bed: the blue light emitted from your devices can interfere with your circadian rhythm. 2. Give yourself a three-hour gap between your last meal and your bedtime. A settled stomach can help you relax and get into that sleepy state sooner. 3. Avoid caffeine after midday. Caffeine raises your heart rate and can stay in your system for up to seven hours.	Session 1 10 min easy run; 4 min steady run, 1 min walk x 6; 10 min easy run (50 min total)	Listen To My Sisters Courtney Daniella Boateng and Renee Kapuku's mission is to see women win. WEEK 5	Have fun with Fartlek! At the halfway point in the plan, you may want to bring some variety to your schedule. Fartlek training makes a great alternative to road running. The word 'Fartlek' comes from the Swedish meaning 'speed play' – find out how to have some Fartlek fun on your runs on our website.	Session 1 30 min easy run	Listen Feel Better, Live More Dr Rangan Charterjee's podcast delivers easy health life-hacks, expert advice and debunks common health myths, giving you the tools to revolutionise how you eat, sleep, move and relax.	Session 2 15 min easy run, 1 min walk x 3 (48 min total)	Join a run crew The Big Half is a celebration of London and its communities – if you live in the city and want to get to know it better while training, why not join a run crew? WEEK 7	How to deal with injury 1. It's OK to be upset or angry about not being able to run. Let those initial emotions out, don't bottle them up or they will build. 2. You can't run right now, but that doesn't mean you're not an athlete. Use this time to focus on your diet, improve flexibility and work on a better sleep routine. 3. Don't rush back. You can end up doing yourself more damage. Take your time and trust the process!	Session 1 10 min walk; 4 min easy run, 1 min walk x 4; 10 min walk (40 min total)	Listen Run with It Run With It is a running podcast with a human face. Plan an outfit and then consider auctioning the choice of your event running gear to the highest donor. Make sure you've practised running in your outfit before Event Day.
WEEK 9	Understanding tapering It may feel counter-productive, but slowing down, prioritising rest, and reducing your mileage in the last couple of weeks before Event Day is exactly what your body needs to perform at its very best. So trust your training – you won't gain any extra fitness in these last couple of weeks. Rest up and make sure you're itching to go next week.	Session 1 30 min easy run	Listen The Green Runners. Now it's time for one final fundraising push as you prepare for Event Day next Sunday.
WEEK 10	Preparing for Event Day You've made it to week 10 – congratulations! You've done the hard work and now all that's left is to go out and run 13.1 miles. But before you do that, make sure you've read your Event Guide, which we will email to you. It includes everything you need to know to ensure your day runs smoothly.	Session 1 30 min easy run	Listen A Runner's Life – Marcus Brown Be inspired by accomplished marathoner Marcus Brown as he and his guests tackle the topics around training that impact our daily lives.	Session 2 20 min easy run	Transforming Lives We work with a different group each year to create the Big Half medal and finisher T-shirt. They all use running and walking to build inclusion, friendship and community, which are what our event is all about. Rep Runners helped us out this year, following on from The Running Charity, Coopah Refugee Run Club and Sanctuary Runners.	Rest day You're nearly there! You've done all the hard work so now you can relax and reflect on how far you've come in the last 10 weeks. Tomorrow is a big day – make sure you eat well and get to bed early, so you're ready to take on 13.1 miles!	THE BIG HALF EVENT DAY! The good news? Today is The Big Half Event Day! The event better news? You're going to smash it! See you at the Start!
